South America

Your unforgettable adventure around the southern tip of South America begins the moment you depart Santiago. Consider ports Puerto Montt and Puerto Chacabuco a prelude to the main event. Marvel at breathtaking waterfalls and huge glaciers as you cruise the Patagonic Channels, Chilean Fjords and Straits of Magellan. Mingle among the real “March of the Penguins” in the Falkland Islands. Catch your breath and some multicultural European charm in Montevideo. And brush up on your dance moves in Buenos Aires, birthplace of the tango.

Scandinavia, Russia, Baltic and Copenhagen

Set sail for an exciting vacation steeped in history, art and culture. Travel through Tallinn’s Old Town within the medieval city walls among watchtowers, graceful spires and winding cobblestone streets. From St. Petersburg, head to Pushkin to visit the Tsar’s Village – ranked one of the masterpieces of the art world. During your walking tour of Helsinki, begin from Senate Square and visit many of the city attractions, including the world famous Rock Church built of bedrock and quarried stone. Experience the Baltic by land and by sea with Norwegian.

Greek Islands

Cruise into antiquity on this amazing sailing through the Greek Isles and along the Italian coast. While in Santorini, visit the beautiful whitewashed hilltop towns of Oia and Fira and their breathtaking views of the caldera below. Enjoy wandering through the narrow, winding streets of Mykonos, a delightful seaside village with its whitewashed houses, flowers and brightly painted shutters and doors. In Valletta, Malta, admire the stunning scenery and wander through imposing churches and down the streets of fortified towns where the Knights of St. John once held sway. And spend a glorious day in Florence taking in the historic Duomo, or “prop up” the leaning tower in nearby Pisa.

Australia

Explore top destinations in Australia and Southeast Asia on one incredible cruise. An overnight in Cairns gives you ample time to take a train ride through the rainforest, plus learn about the country’s indigenous people – and pick up some boomerang skills – at Tjapuki Aboriginal Culture Park. In Darwin, discover the city’s vibrant gardens and browse for authentic Aboriginal art. Fantastic snorkeling and diving abound along Indonesia’s Komodo Island. And two days in Bali gives you room to explore the island’s iconic stone temples and behold panoramas of the lush countryside and endless ocean.

New Zealand

Discover the treasures of New Zealand on this amazing round-trip voyage from Sydney. In Auckland, learn about the Maori and their culture – don’t miss the chance to take home some native art and jewelry. While in Akaroa, marvel at the largest penguin colonies on the mainland, plus be on the lookout for marine dolphins on a scenic kayak ride. And see one of the best collections of Southern Maori artifacts in Dunedin’s Otago Museum.

Iceland, Ireland, Norway and UK

Witness Norway’s breathtaking fjords and discover Iceland and coastal Northern Europe on this unforgettable sailing. Before departing, make time to explore the rich history and vibrant culture of London. While in Reykjavik, experience the healing properties of bathing in the warm, mineral-rich Blue Lagoon. In Flam, climb via train from sea level to 2,800 feet, crossing rivers and traveling through 20 tunnels. And visit one of Amsterdam’s superb museums featuring many of the Dutch Masters’ most outstanding works, or learn about Anne Frank and the city’s Jewish heritage.

British Isles Heritage

Discover the beauty and rich history of Ireland as well as the coast of the British Isles. Walk the Royal Mile from Edinburgh Castle perched high on the hill to the 17th-century Holyrood Palace, the British Monarchy’s official residence in Scotland. Delight in vibrant Belfast’s ornate Victorian and Edwardian architecture, gracious gardens and friendly pubs. And an overnight in Dublin gives you time to see the magnificently decorated Book of Kells is on display at the venerable Trinity College as well as stroll through lovely St. Stephen’s Green, a beautiful city park immortalized by James Joyce in Ulysses. Cuba and Panama Canal

Explore the wonders of the Western Caribbean, including a visit to the world’s greatest shortcut – the Panama Canal – and a stop at historic Havana. Along your journey, stroll the romantic cobblestone streets of Cartagena’s Old Town, with its old-world colonial architecture. Then visit Panama Canal’s Gatun Lake to get close to one of the most incredible feats of civil engineering. On your way back to Miami, visit Grand Cayman’s famous Stingray City Sandbar to interact with and feed dozens of Southern Stingrays in the wild. And enjoy a daylong visit in Havana, time to sip cafecitos with the locals and discover vintage buildings in an equally vintage American car.
